

MENTHAT MAY VOTE

City Attorney Taylor Submits a list of

ELECTORIAL QUALIFICATIONS

For the Benefit of Persons in Doubt as to Their Citizenship—Synopsis of the Law.

City Attorney Taylor has prepared and submitted the following statement relative to the qualifications of voters in the election to take place today:

EDITOR HERALD:—My attention having frequently, within the past few days, been called to the question as to who are electors and qualified to vote at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 3, it is, perhaps, not inappropriate that I should state what are the qualifications of electors in Michigan. Article 7 of Section 1 of the constitution of the state of Michigan provides, as to the qualifications of electors in times of peace, as follows:

Article 7, section 1. "In all the elections, every male citizen, every male inhabitant residing in the state on the 24th day of June, 1835, every male inhabitant residing in the state on the 1st day of January, 1850, who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, pursuant to the laws thereof, six months preceding an election, or who has resided in the state two years and six months and declared his intention as aforesaid, and every male inhabitant of Indian descent, a native of the United States, and not a member of any tribe, shall be an elector or entitled to vote at any election, unless he shall be above the age of twenty-one years, and has resided in this state three months and in the township or ward in which he offers to vote, ten days next preceding such election."

The remainder of the section refers to times of war, insurrection or rebellion, in reference to electors in actual military service, and need not now be noticed.

The Section Analyzed.

First. It will thus be seen that every male inhabitant who was residing in the state June 24, 1835, is entitled to vote. Such cases, of course, are rare.

Second. Every male citizen and every male inhabitant who was residing in the state January 1, 1850, who had taken out his first papers six months before election of 1850, there can be very few is entitled to vote.

Third. And this is the important question. Every male inhabitant who has resided in the state two years and six months previous to November 3, 1903, and who has declared his intention to become a citizen at least six months prior to the election, and who is 21 years of age, is entitled to vote, provided he has resided in the ward ten days previous to the election. It is not sufficient that he has resided in the United States two years and six months previous to the election, and has taken out his first papers six months previous to the election, but he must have resided in Michigan at least two years and a half previous to the election and have had his first papers for at least six months.

Any person who has complied with these last conditions has the same standing as a native born citizen in regard to voting at the election, but, just as the native born citizen, he might lose his right to vote in Michigan by not having had his residence in Michigan for the three months next preceding the election; because, whether a native born citizen, or a naturalized citizen with full papers, or a citizen voting on his first papers, under the conditions above stated, in any event, he must be a male inhabitant of the state, 21 years of age, and have had his residence in this state three months before the election, and in the ward ten days before the election.

It is unnecessary to speak of qualifications of civilized Indians, etc.

In Regard to Absence.

Another matter it is, perhaps, well to call attention to: A citizen, having all the qualifications of an elector, may have been absent from the state for a period of three months and upwards prior to the election, and yet not lose his residence in the state, because the question of residence is one of intention, and being absent on business temporarily, even for a period of several months, or for pleasure or for the regaining of health, or what not, does not deprive the voter of his residence in Michigan; the question is governed by his honest intent as to residence.

There ought not to be any difficulty for the election officers to properly determine the qualifications of electors who may apply to vote. The great danger is in regard to the voters who vote on their "first papers" (so-called), and it should distinctly be understood, that as to all foreign born persons, two years and a half residence in Michigan is required and also possession of such first papers six months before the election.

An idea prevails with some that a father by taking out his first papers thereby makes citizens of all his minor children. This is incorrect; but a foreign born father, who has taken out his full papers, thereby does make citizens of all his minor children, minors at the time of taking out his full papers. Any foreign born person coming to this country under 18 years of age, and who has lived in this country five years, can take out his first and second papers at the same time and immediately become a full citizen.

Republican Victories.

Yesterday the various county and congressional committees completed their work and all of them went to bed last night confident of success. A large number of farmers voted the republican county headquarters yesterday. All of them prophesied a big vote and a sweeping republican majority in the township. It is generally believed that the republicans will elect two of the representatives in the state legislature and will also elect the state senator. Every republican right pointed to the election of the entire republican county ticket by majorities ranging from 200 to 1,000. It is feared by the committee that the weather today, unless radically different from that of the past week, will imperil republican success.

CHICAGO ODDS.

All Kinds of Money and All Kinds of Bets.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—There was an abundance of political excitement around the hotels today, which found vent in the majority of instances in an offer to bet. There was some betting in every form, betting on Harrison, on Cleveland, on New York, on Indiana and on Illinois. These were the favorite states; the wagers in the last instance being confined to the gubernatorial contest. One of the democratic central committees laid a sum of $750 on Aligned against $1,000 on Fifer. The same gentlemen have another $750 to lay at the same terms. So far as these two candidates are concerned, the betting is laid in most cases on the question of majority rather than the absolute result. The Sherman house lobby was crowded with men who wished to lay anywhere from $10 to $10,000. Several democratic republicans were also putting up even money on Cleveland carrying the state.

Joseph Fish laid even $4,500 on Cleveland at the Richelieu. The money was readily taken by a republican enthusiast. One hundred of the voters of the Hoosier state were sent home by E. W. Bradford, who arrived at the Grand Pacific on Sunday morning commencing by J. G. Dowdy to supply transportation to all voters living in this city. Mr. Bradford is by no means sanguine as to the success of his party. "Much will depend upon the day," he said, "if we get our voters out, then we will be all right—victory is ours. If not, why, then—you see the democratic for the greater part, are made up of men who are accustomed to rough weather, in fact to hard life generally. Therefore they are not likely to have their number diminished by storm or rain."

A complaint has reached the republican headquarters that a number of railroad men who live in Indiana towns and board in Chicago have been registered in both states. The number will probably reach over 200. It is said they are being brought into Chicago under the auspices of the democratic party local leaders.

United States marshals have been especially instructed to take summary measures to prevent a perpetration of the alleged fraud.

WESTERN NEW YORK

Is Solid for Harrison and Democrats Admit It.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The campaign in Western New York closed tonight. In Erie county the canvass has been a stirring one and the result is uncertain. The republican leaders claim they will carry the county by 10,500 plurality, but the more conservative do not place it as high as 1,000. On the other hand the democrats are confident of winning by the same figures. In Chautauque, the republicans claim they will exceed Harrison's plurality of 5,380 in 1888 and confidently expect to make it 5,500. The democrats say it will not reach 5,700. In Cattaraugus the republicans are estimating their plurality for Harrison at 2,200, or about 200 more than in 1888. The democrats believe it will not exceed 1,500. Allegany is expected to give Harrison 3,000 or 4,000 less than four years ago. The democrats assert they will reduce it some and that it will not exceed 2,700. In Wyoming the democrats claim they will keep the republicans down to 1,500 or less. Harrison got 1,700 there in 1888 and the republicans claim they will hold that plurality this year. In Genesee the highest claim made by the republicans is 1,200 or 1,000 less than in 1888. The democrats say it will be less than 1,000. Niagara will have a close contest. Both sides claim they will have a plurality and the result now appears uncertain.

GOLMAN IS SANGUINE.

He Remarks that Cleveland is as Good as Elected Now.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Gorman was in the city today and remarked to a reporter: "I came home as soon as my work elsewhere was done and tomorrow I expect to vote for the next president. Yes," he continued, "that remark might be regarded as indicative of certainty on my part as to the identity of the next president. Let me state frankly that for two weeks past there has never been any doubt in my mind as to Mr. Cleveland's success. Beyond question he will win. "New York is sure by a good majority—I am not dealing in figures now—while both Indiana and Connecticut are equally safe. West Virginia will continue to belong to us. We shall not lose a southern vote. Under some circumstances, the republicans might have gained temporary advantage in places heretofore democratic, but for the action of the government, in offensively enforcing a statute which will permit the employment of deputy marshals at the polls. That gives the people a practical idea as to what might be expected were the force bill a law. I shall not attempt to tell you what our New York majority will be, but you should be satisfied with the assurance that it is going to be large enough. Cleveland is as good as elected now."

RUNNING IN VOTERS.

Jersey Politician Makes a Levy on New York and is Arrested.

JERSEY CITY, Nov. 7.—When George Miller was arrested in this city last Friday for bringing repeaters into New Jersey with the intention of voting there in Bergen and Passaic counties, Police Superintendent Smith was informed that the go-between was a local politician named Michael O'Mara who, until recently has been a democrat. He has frequently been charged with crooked work by both parties, he having been a republican state legislator. He was never convicted, however. Superintendent Smith was convinced that there was some truth in the story and he detailed detectives to watch O'Mara. Tonight the officers traced O'Mara to Hoboken, where he met eighteen men in Hudson street. They came from New York. The detectives obtained the aid of Hoboken officers and an attempt was made to capture the entire party. O'Mara and eight of the men were arrested, but the others got away. The prisoners were locked up in Hoboken and will be arraigned before Judge Lippincott on Wednesday. It was learned that another meeting had been arranged by O'Mara with a party of men in Washington street, but when the officers reached the rendezvous the rooms were empty.

When O'Mara was searched between five and six thousand papers were found upon him. They bore the name of Henry Doherty, the republican candidate for congress in the fifth district. In O'Mara's pocket was found a despatch from John R. Wiggins, the republican candidate for assemblyman in the district of Hudson, asking O'Mara to meet him in Hoboken this evening. The men arrested with O'Mara claimed to live in Jersey City. Mr. Wiggins did not put in an appearance at the place indicated in the despatch, so at present the validity of the telegram is in doubt. O'Mara said he received it from a messenger but could not say who sent it.

HARRISON HAS INDIANA.

So Says Wanamaker in an Interview at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 7.—Postmaster General Wanamaker, who is a passenger on this evening train from Indiana, which state he has been stumping for President Harrison. In a brief talk at the Union station Mr. Wanamaker was full of confidence in Indiana going republican and gave a number of reasons for his faith.

He said: "The state is safe for Harrison. In twenty-one meetings which I held I saw indications which are not to be mistaken. The people are not so noisy as they were four years ago, and they are not often found saying what they will do; but the questions they ask show the bent of their minds. They are, in the main, a proper and they desire to have it remain so. Never in a presidential campaign has there been so much thinking and so little noise. The cause of this peculiar feature is better newspapers and a better postal service," he added smilingly. "This condition of better papers and better postal facilities has come to a state. We have permanent reason to higher plane of politics, all of which," he concluded with a wave of hand, "must redound to the benefit of the republican party."

Mr. Wanamaker would not talk about the situation in New York, as he had received no advice for over a week.

DEFEAT AT PEESKILL.

Chauncy Gives His Old Friends a Charming Talk.

PEESKILL, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The campaign in Westchester county was brought to a most fitting close in this city tonight. The largest and most enthusiastic assemblage ever gathered together in Peekskill met at the Depeu Opera house, where Chauncy M. Depew, as has been his custom on the night before the election for the past thirty-four years, addressed his fellow people in the republican cause.

Long before the meeting opened the vast hall had been filled to overflowing and when the gavel of the chairman rapped for order standing room was at a premium. At 7:30 the Young Men's Republican club, headed by the Peekskill cornet band and marching 1,000 strong, paraded from their headquarters to the opera house. Fireworks and bon fires illuminated the line of march and the enthusiasm ran rampant. When the club reached the hall there were hardly enough seats to accommodate them. The large stage was occupied by the republican men and women of the city. Colonel Robertson introduced Chauncy M. Depew and for the two next hours the audience was treated to one of Mr. Depew's masterly orations, which was interspersed with witty campaign stories. The meeting was prolonged to a late hour and broke up with the wildest enthusiasm.

ALL CLAIM COLORADO.

Republican Electors May Run Behind the State Ticket.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Tonight closed the most bitter campaign in the history of Colorado and tomorrow's balloting will carry the result. Republican state leaders claim the state by 5,500 for Harrison. They claim both congressmen—Coe by 5,500 and Eddy by 1,800. Fusion democrats say Weaver will have 6,000 to 7,000 majority, while Pence will be elected to congress in the First district by 3,500 and Bell in the second district by 4,000. Both sides also claim a majority in the legislature. The Harrison electors will probably run behind the state ticket, though it is difficult to estimate how much. The people's party manager claims are even higher than those of the democrats.

Betting on the Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Betting continued brisk in Wall street and on the exchange today. The odds were even on the general result and on Connecticut and a good many bets were recorded. The bulk of the betting was on the state in which the democrats offered 2 to 1. A good many bets were taken on these odds, but there was plenty of money around which was not covered. At the Hoffman house tonight the odds remained as they had been.

The Keystone Watch Case Co. of Philadelphia, the largest watch case manufacturing concern in the world, is now putting upon the Jas. Boss Filled and other cases made by it, a bow (ring) which cannot be twisted or pulled off the watch.

It is a sure protection against the pickpocket and the many accidents that befall watches fitted with the old-style bow, which is simply held in by friction and can be twisted off with the fingers. It is called the 10 to 9 that Cleveland would win; and 2 to 1 that he would carry the state. A good many large bets were made. It was found republican money was more plentiful than democratic on the general result, but odds of 2 to 1 on a state went begging.

WILL LESSEN THE VOTE.

Heavy Snow in Minnesota and the Dakotas and Zero Weather.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7.—It has been snowing and blowing throughout Minnesota and the Dakotas for twelve hours. Six inches of snow have fallen, which in places has drifted badly. It will interfere with the farmers getting to the polls tomorrow. At 11 p. m. it was clearing up, and tomorrow's forecast indicates that the temperature will run down almost to zero.

SHERIFF AND MARSHAL AGREE.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 7.—After an all day conference, United States Marshal Niminger and Sheriff Morrow, of this county, tonight signed a joint agreement, by which neither the marshal's deputies nor the deputy sheriffs will be allowed to enter the thirty foot limit or go behind the polls unless requested to do so by the election managers. This will avoid anticipated trouble. The settlement of the difference between state and federal authorities is hailed with delight.

Illegal Registration.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Warrants for over one hundred negroes, charged with having registered illegally, were taken out by the democratic campaign managers in Justice Prindiville's court this afternoon. They were placed in the hands of democratic supervisors, who have been instructed to serve them when the suspected parties present themselves at the polls today.

Can They Defeat Watson.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 7.—The hottest campaign in the state since the days of the reconstruction closed in the tenth district tonight. The democrats are confident of defeating Watson, the present representative, by about 3,000 votes. The state will go for Cleveland by 50,000 at least.
